

I.P (P.G) College Campus-2 Bulandshahr

Action Taken Report

2024-25

Feedback Received:

During the last academic session, students provided feedback requesting the following improvements for the betterment of campus facilities:

1. Establishment of a canteen within the college premises.
2. Availability of stationery items on campus.
3. Expansion and relocation of the library to a larger and more comfortable space.

Action Taken:

Based on the feedback and subsequent discussions in the IQAC meeting, the following actions were implemented:

1. Stationery Provision: A stationery counter has been set up inside the campus canteen shop to ensure students have easy access to essential academic materials such as notebooks, pens, files, and other supplies with photo copy facility.
2. Library Relocation: The college library has been shifted to a more spacious and well-ventilated area to accommodate more students and enhance the learning environment. The new library space also includes improved seating arrangements and additional reference materials.

Outcome:

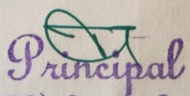

The initiatives have been well received by the students. The canteen and stationery facilities have increased convenience, and the larger library space has provided a better academic atmosphere conducive to study and research.
